The acceptance of an item for test and the issue of a test report are subjected to the SABS's CONDITIONS OF TEST*, from which the following have been extracted:

1. If published or reproduced by the client, a test report shall be reproduced in full, i.e. the reproduction shall contain the printed as well as the typed parts of the report, nothing excepted. In special circumstances an abridged form of the report or certain parts of the report may be published or reproduced, provided that the abridged form or partial version of the report is approved in writing by the President and CEO of the SABS before publication or issue.
2. A test report relates only to an item submitted for the actual test. It furnishes or implies no guarantee whatsoever in respect of a similar item that has not been tested.
3. The performance of a test and the issue of a test report do not imply approval by the SABS of the quality and/or performance of the item that has been tested. This does not authorize the use of a certification mark.

NOTE - An unlawful statement implying that an item has been approved by the SABS constitutes a punishable offence in terms of section 21(1) of the Standards Act.

4. While every endeavour will be made to ensure that a test is representative and accurately performed, and that a report is accurate in the quoted results and conclusions drawn from the test, the SABS or its officers shall in no way be liable for any error made in carrying out the test or for any erroneous statement, whether in fact or in opinion, contained in a report issued pursuant to a test.

*Obtainable upon request from the President and CEO, SABS, Private Bag X191, Pretoria, 0001.
